

VILLA PREPARES TO MOVE SOUTH

Indications today were that Gen. Villa was preparing to move virtually his entire army toward Mexico City, leaving only local garrisons in the territory he dominates. It previously had been understood that the northern "Constitutionalist" leader would participate in the mobilization above the national capital with only 5000 men.

Reports received at Chihuahua city, where Villa remains, said that the eastern and western divisions were mobilizing large numbers of men to the south. This was given as accounting for Villa's delay in moving south, and the extensive recruiting of men throughout his division.

Col. Santos Coy, Villa's acting chief of staff, and other officers who have been scouring on this side of the line have received instructions to hasten to Chihuahua. It was predicted that a general movement south would be begun by the middle of the present week.

Gen. Villa has kept an absolute silence regarding reports of further differences with Carranza.

Gen. Villa and his wife spent Sunday at Aldama, a village north of the state capital. They were met by almost the entire population, and entertained during the day. Gen. Felipe Angeles and others of Villa's officers accompanied them.

MORE RIFLES SEIZED BY BORDER PATROL

Twenty-seven rifles, which Mexicans were attempting to smuggle across the river Saturday night, were seized by sentinels of the 15th infantry, encamped near the foundry. The rifles were packed in boxes. This is the second seizure of rifles made by troops of the border patrol within the past week, and indicates the vigilance being observed by the soldiers on duty along the river.

PEACE PARLEY MUST PRECEDE AN ARMISTICE

Mexico City, July 27.—Gen. R. F. Velasco, minister of war, stated that no armistice between rebels and federals will be signed until the peace commissioners assemble. It was unofficially announced that the peace conference would probably be held at San Luis Potosi, though Saltillo is said to be favored by Carranza.

GEN. NAVARETTE SEEKS REFUGE

Veracruz, July 27.—All the trains arriving here from Mexico City continue to have numerous former adherents of Huerta's regime who propose to remain here only until opportunity is afforded them to go abroad. Among those arriving here Sunday were Gen. Rubio Navarette and Fernando Limon, and six minor officers.

FEDERALS BROKE, END THEIR WAR

Federal filibusters in western Chihuahua are broke. The filibusters who started to conquer the state for the federal government have spent all of the money they had when Roque Gomez crossed the line with 150 men. They have been unable to get ammunition and are staying in camp near the Palomas ranch in western Chihuahua. An effort is being made to raise money for them among the federals in El Paso but with little success.

NAVARRO IS PICKED TO SUCCEED MUZQUIZ

Senor R. E. Muzquiz expects to be succeeded in a few days by E. E. Navarro, as "Constitutionalist" consul in El Paso. Navarro, who has been rebel agent at Chicago, is now on his way here and while senior Muzquiz has not been definitely advised the Chicago agent is to take his place, he believes such will be the case.

Senor Muzquiz, who tendered his resignation to Carranza some days ago, will go south to confer with Carranza, and later expects to proceed to Mexico City, where he probably will hold a position under the new government.

According to consul Muzquiz, wire and mail communication between Juarez and San Luis Potosi has been restored and messages have been received from as far south as Queretaro. He also stated he had been advised of the arrival at Tampico today of Carranza, who will hold a conference there with Reginaldo Cepeda, a Carballa envoy.

SALAZAR DENIES ANY CONCERN IN REVOLT

Gen. Jose Xner Salazar, in prison at Fort Wingate, N. M., has sent The Herald a letter declaring that he has no intention of joining or participating in a new revolt in his country, if he secures his release. He says he started the revolt against Madero because he did not believe Madero had complied with the promises he made before being elected. Now that the country has lost many of its sons in a bloody struggle, he says it looks as if the new government about to come into being would restore to the people their rights and he would consider it anti-patriotic for him to take the field against this government. "I have few ambitions and a great love for my country," he says. He denies that there is a conspiracy in the camp to secure his release.

Charles A. Soule, potentate of the Bon Hur shrine, at Austin, and W. G. Franklin, recorder of the same shrine, were here Sunday as the guests of the local shrine.

Orndorff Didn't Use Greaser; Vindicated of Mayor's Charge

Mexican Voters of His Home Precinct Sign a Declaration That They Would Rather Accept His Word Than the Affidavits Presented by Mayor Kelly—Money Spent Freely by Kelly Against Orndorff, the Charge.

Seth Orndorff has been completely vindicated in the eyes of the voters of El Paso county on the charge made by mayor C. E. Kelly that he referred to a certain Spanish-American candidate as a "greaser." The mayor's first statement was that Orndorff had made the statement in Hotel Sheldon to a man, "Why, you wouldn't vote for a greaser like Escalada, against a man like McKinney?" After Orndorff confronted him and asked him for his proof or a correction, Kelly brought in an affidavit from Jim Newton, foreman on the county road, who declared that Orndorff said to him at Belmont "You wouldn't vote for a greaser like McKinney, against a man like Ten Eyck, would you?"

The mayor up to the present time has not produced the man to whom Orndorff was supposed to have made the statement about Escalada in the Sheldon hotel.

Orndorff was elected by the biggest majority of any anti-ring candidate. Frank Wadlington, who draws $2 a day from the county and in addition has a great many teams on county road work, made affidavit to a statement that he heard Orndorff call McKinley a greaser in conversation with Newton.

Mr. Orndorff has made affidavit that he never used the word greaser and his Spanish-American neighbors in his own precinct have signed a statement to the effect that they credit his affidavit and would rather believe him on his oath. Mr. Orndorff calls attention to the people of El Paso county to the returns from Socorro Saturday to see whether or not his Mexican friends believed Kelly and his two affidavits, which had no bearing on the original controversy.

Several American voters asked Mr. Orndorff for the privilege of signing the statement. A number of other American voters signed a separate petition pledging their support. In his home precinct, Mr. Orndorff polled 195 votes to six for his opponent.

Mr. Orndorff's Affidavit

The affidavit of Mr. Orndorff is as follows: Before me the undersigned authority on this day personally appeared Seth

REPUTATES ALL HUERTA'S DEBTS

Tampico, Mex., July 27.—Via Laredo, Tex., July 27.—Carranza today indicated that he will stand by the decree he issued early in the revolution regarding financial transactions made by Huerta. His attention today was called to a report that just before resigning and leaving the country, Huerta received $500,000 from the Rothschilds, giving in return a grant of a vast area in Lower California at a price of one cent an acre. Carranza declared no such grant of public lands would be recognized and recalled that leading bankers of the world had been so notified.

It was reported here today that Sir Christopher Cradock, British admiral, on his visit to Carranza demanded that all concessions made by Huerta to Lord Cowdray and other British citizens be ratified by the "Constitutionalist" and that Carranza returned a positive refusal.

Foreign consuls had another visit to Carranza today in which a discussion of prospects took place. Carranza told them there should be no apprehension of wholesale repudiation from the "Constitutionalist" on those who aided Huerta.

As fast as the federals are disarmed Carranza plans to distribute them throughout the country to repair the railroad tracks. He hopes in this way to give them employment and also to scatter them so there will be little danger of their mobilization against him in case of a counter revolution.

CANANDA INCENDIARY SUSPECTS ARRESTED

Cananda, Son, July 27.—A number of Mexicans suspected of having set fire to the town of Cananda, in this county, have been placed under arrest by military authorities and will be subjected to a severe examination. The fire in the mine is being gotten under control. Shift No. 11, the main working shaft, has been entirely destroyed. The fire above the 17 tunnel has been extinguished.

AMERICAN FEDERATION URGES FAIR TREATMENT OF FEDERALS

Washington, D. C., July 27.—On behalf of the executive committee of the American Federation of Labor, Samuel Gompers sent a communication to Carranza stating that the great mass of working people in the United States had been in thorough sympathy with the revolution. However, he urged, now is the time to deal leniently with the stricken federals.

CHILD STRAYS FAR FROM HIS HOME

Early Monday morning Kenneth Robinson, age six, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Robinson of 2518 Kentucky avenue, disappeared from his home and has not been seen by his parents since. Mr. Robinson called The Herald and asked the paper to cooperate in the search for the little boy whose mother is on the verge of a nervous breakdown as the result of his disappearance. The child was dressed in a pink Peter Pan suit with a bow tie. He has a light complexion and dark hair. Mr. Robinson said it is the first time he has ever disappeared from his home.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

Washington, D. C., July 27.—The day in congress: Debate resumed on the trust bill. President Harrison of the Southern railway testified before the committee investigating charges of discrimination in southern coal rates. House. Debate resumed on the general dam bill to regulate water power development in navigable streams.

INSURANCE COMPANIES FIGHT FOR LICENSES

Jefferson City, Mo., July 27.—Suits seeking to enjoin C. K. G. Revella, state superintendent of insurance, from revoking the licenses of the Bakers Insurance company of Des Moines and the Woodmen Accident Insurance company, who refused to pay a policy, were filed in the circuit court here today by attorneys for the companies.

THE PRICE SHE PAYS

There is hardly an American woman nowadays who can keep pace with the demands made upon her time and energy without paying the penalty of ill-health. It may be that dreadful backache, dragging pains, head aches, nervousness or the tortures of a displacement. It is the price she pays. To women in this condition Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound comes as a boon and a blessing. A simple remedy made from roots and herbs which brings glorious health to suffering women.—Advertisement.
